

Shakespeare's ENGLAND

Business Meetings and Events

Shakespeare's England is a perfect location as a meetings and incentive destination for both domestic and internationally based businesses. It combines the rich heritage of Shakespearian England with an easy to reach location and affordable conference and meeting rates.

Shakespeare's England covers the main towns of Stratford-upon-Avon, Kenilworth, Royal Leamington Spa, Warwick and the surrounding countryside of the Cotswolds. There is easy access from the M5, M1, M40 and the M6 and Birmingham Airport. The area is also well served by the rail network including regular fast direct train lines to both London and Birmingham.

In addition to this ease of access the area has a rich and varied heritage providing any meeting with a link to the history and heritage of England. As the area has a history of catering for a wide variety of international and domestic leisure visitors the welcome and levels of service are as good as you will expect anywhere in the world. A wide variety of suitable hotels and visitor attractions ensure guests have plenty to fill their time.

Along with the central location and ease of access are very competitive conference rates to ensure that meetings or conferences in Shakespeare's England will impress and delight delegates without breaking your meeting budgets.

For more information

Visit www.shakespeares-england.co.uk

Or email robin@shakespeares-england.co.uk